Girl Talk Foundation, Inc. 2nd Annual Golf Tournament Hosted by E*Trade Financial Featuring Celebrity Golfers

CHARLOTTE, N.C. Girl Talk Foundation, Inc. – a nonprofit organization focused on empowering young girls, holds its second annual golf tournament sponsored by E*Trade Financial, Saturday October 4, 2008 at Skybrook Golf Club, 14720 Northgreen Drive, Huntersville, N.C. with a 1:00 p.m. shotgun start. Celebrity golfers include: former NBA point guard Tyrone 'Muggsy' Bogues, former world boxing champion Calvin Brock, former NFL players Carlton Bailey and Brenston Buckner, former WNBA player Rhonda Mapp, Charlotte City Council members James Mitchell Jr., and Warren Turner, Mecklenburg County Commissioner Norman Mitchell and Charlotte Mecklenburg Police Chief Rodney Monroe

"I am excited about this year's tournament," said Janine Davis, executive director Girl Talk Foundation, Inc. "E*Trade Financial has come aboard for a second year and we have a commitment from celebrities and community leaders who see the importance of investing in young people, especially young girls. It's a great partnership."

In addition to a day of golf, Coca-Cola is sponsoring "Girls On The Green," a mini-golf clinic pairing golfers with Girl Talk members to demonstrate the game of golf (11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.) All proceeds benefit programs for Girl Talk Foundation, Inc. which include teen summits, college tours, a girls fitness camp the "Tailoring Teens For Success" (a 10-week curriculum to develop leadership and life skills for girls) and the annual Prom Project which donates prom dresses to deserving girls and offers them etiquette lessons.

Last year golf tournament raised approximately $13,000. This year's goal is $25,000. To play or sponsor a team, contact Ursula Strong at 704-408-9872 or via email sponsor@girltalkfoundationinc.com.
