

For Immediate Release: November 7, 2008

Contact: Janine Davis,
704-608-1739 (media only)
Sondra Hines (media only)
704-395-0011

MEDIA ADVISORY

Girl Talk Foundation, Inc. “Tailoring Teens For Success” Graduation Ceremony

Theme: I Am Destined For Greatness

- Who: Girl Talk Foundation, Inc.—a non-profit organization empowering young girls ages 11-16 to become leaders.
- What: Graduation ceremony for participants of “Tailoring Teens For Success,” a 10-week program focusing on managing anger, finance, etiquette, health/hygiene and self acceptance to name a few. Program is designed to build character, encourage positive and critical thinking, and develop leadership and life skills in young girls. The curriculum also included a one day college tour. Approximately 25 girls will be awarded graduate certificates. Former Girl Talk graduates will serve as speakers. The theme of the graduation is “I Am Destined for Greatness.”
- When: Saturday November 15, 2008 – 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
- Where: Maggianos Little Italy, 4400 Sharon Road, Southpark Mall

- More -

About Girl Talk Foundation, Inc.

Girl Talk Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit organization that serves as a resource and network of support for young girls between the ages of 11-16. The mission of Girl Talk is to empower today's girls to become leaders of tomorrow. The goals are to encourage positive and critical thinking, build character, promote self-respect, teach life skills and develop leadership skills. Annually, Girl Talk services about 700 girls through its various programs. Girl Talk was created by radio/TV personality Janine Davis, an 18-year veteran of the broadcasting industry.

Girl Talk Foundation, Inc. 801 East. Morehead Street, #105, Charlotte, NC 28202, 704-335-5885, www.girltalkfoundationinc.com.

Media Advisory: Please place this event on your news/community calendars. Photo and interview opportunities will be available throughout the graduation ceremony with teen participants, parents and Girl Talk volunteers.

###